Happy New Year Keene! Just want you to know we haven't forgotten you. We have had a discussion with Jennifer Lucchessi, Executive Director of CA State Lands Commission regarding LAFCO and your interest in the Port of San Diego. Jennifer was inclined to write you a letter rather than entertain a meeting. We let her know that it would be best if you received that letter before the end of the month so that you could share State Lands' view with your board at your February meeting. Best wishes for a great 2024!
